Cycle A Subject Overview
Subject: History

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Reception No cycle A or B	Understanding the World Me and My Family Conversations about family and birthdays throughout the year. Bonfire Night and Historical Figures Ongoing conversations about what they have done and with who.	Understanding the World Conversations about family and birthdays throughout the year. Ongoing conversations about what they have done and with who.	Understanding the World Talk about holidays they have been on. Conversations about family and birthdays throughout the year. Ongoing conversations about what they have done and with who.
Year 1/2	Toys Rosa Parks	When Three queens Ruled	Seaside
Years 3/4	Stone Age		Romans - Colchester Castle Visit
Year 5/6	Shackleton's discoveries Race to the Pole	Turning point in History - The Home Front	Windrush generation Anglo Saxons

Cycle B Subject Overview
Subject: History

	Autumn	Spring	Summer
Reception No cycle A or B	Understanding the World Me and My Family Conversations about family and birthdays throughout the year. Bonfire Night and Historical Figures Ongoing conversations about what they have done and with who.	Understanding the World Conversations about family and birthdays throughout the year. Ongoing conversations about what they have done and with who.	Understanding the World Talk about holidays they have been on. Conversations about family and birthdays throughout the year. Ongoing conversations about what they have done and with who.
Year 1/2	Moon Landings Gunpowder Plot	Mary Seacole & Florence Nightingale	History of Local Area
Years 3/4	Ancient Egypt		Ancient Greece
Year 5/6	Space race- chronology	Ancient Mayans	Coggeshall- local study